Green Economics Institute
Green Economics Conference 2012
Draft
Conference Timetable

7th Annual Green Economics Institute, Green Economics Conference at Mansfield College, Oxford University

Reforming Economics

19th, 20th 21st July 2012

greeneconomicsevents@yahoo.co.uk
greeneconomicsinstitute@yahoo.com
www.greeneconomics.org.uk

Wednesday 18th July Evening 18.30 -23.00

Kings Arms, Wadham Room, English Pub, Oxford

Theme
Young People and employment, the crisis, democracy and the economy and
Setting the Scene of the global economy and its key features
(This event must be pre booked and pre paid)

Welcome Speeches

18.30 onwards	Registration Katherine Kennet and Kristina Jociute

18.30-19.30	Interns speeches Annual Presentation of our Interns Programme	Welcome speech! Institute Manager Kristina Jociute, (Lithuania) Public Launch of our latest book: Green Economics and Young People, Employment and Education and the Crisis! Juliane Goeke(Germany) Intergenerational Equity, Bradley Forder,(UK) Its not our mess its your mess! The younger generation answers back Hannah Hooper (UK)
19.30-21.00	Dinner on a Cash Basis
21.00-22.00	Speeches and Typical English Oxford Pub in the University area.	Green Economics and Young People, Employment and Education Adam Salah The shocking facts about youth unemployment Lizz Vine (Social Historian) The problem of alchohol and Binge Drinking in young people- the lost generation. An socio historical perspective of todays economics problems. Edita Lithuania (Lithuania) – Young people in Lithuania and the average wages of a European country with very low PPP.
22.00-23.00	Chatting, networking, Welcome to international delegates. Debate

Thursday 19th July 2012 9.00 – 23.00
Mansfield College, Oxford University

	Junior Common Room	Council Chamber
	Themes :Agriculture and Trade, Aid, Development, Poverty, Prevention, Research
9.00	Registration, Networking and books (Katherine Kennet and Kristina Jociute)
9-11.00	Bar open for teas coffees and snacks
9.30-10.15	Workshop: A Study of the expected impact of applying organic farming and integrated biological control on Date palm Production in Saudi Arabia Role of organic agriculture application in reducing environmental pollution Professor Safar Alqahtani: Saudi Arabia	Workshop Textiles and sweatshops Taming the corporations Discussion: and book project launch: Juliana Goeke and Bradley Forder
10.15 -11.15	Plenary Development and Trade Trade: Not Free; What is best for the Third World? Alistair White Former EU Advisor to Latin America A case study of CDM in Indonesia Juliane Goeke (Germany) Michelle Gale De Oliviera (Brazil via Skype) Human Rights Law and a development country perspective
11.15- 12.30	Welcome Speech Plenary Panel and Keynote speeches and Certificates and Prize giving! Michelle Gale De Oliveira Brazil and USA The Green Economics Story Reform of Economics Miriam Kennet and Michelle Gale De Oliveira Charles Secrett, Keynote ! Green Economics in adolescent turmoil of change and maturing fast!- the next 15 years! Enrico Tezza Senior Official International Training Centre of the ILO International Labour Organisation, Turin The new working time directive and well being

	Director of Research and International Strategy Directorate, ESRC Dr. John Wand Keynote Speaker
12.30- 13.00	Keynote speech
13.00	Lunch: Oxford University Club Lunch on a cash basis
14.00- 14.10	Photo on the quad
Afternoon Themes : The Greening of Asia and China and Agriculture, food security and the Rural Economy around the world:Womens Unequal Pay and Poverty
Agriculture and the Green Built Environment and Transport Infrastructure Food and Security
14.30- 15.15	Workshops Rural Economy: Investment and poverty in the UK Peter Kirby- Harris	Emma Waight Second Hand Cultures, Trade, Economy and Environment
15.15- 16.00	The green economy in agriculture, GMO social and environmental costs and the state Professor Leszek Wozniak Rzeszow University of Technology Poland,
16.30- 18.30	Bar open and croquet on the lawn
16.00- 16.45	The Greening of Asia and China and India Workshops Green Gujarat: A vision towards sustainability Dr Indira Dutta Central University Gujerat -Ghanhinagar (India) Manan Jain Gifting the New Approach to the Economy Mumbai School of Management, India (via skype) Miiram Kennet will present his paper from India	Transport and Infrastructure in the Green Built Environment Stephen Plowden The case for the local car
16.45- 17.15	Workshops Forest Multiple Uses: Theory and Practice Dr Professor Sun Yujun Beijing Forestry University. (China)	Workshops Affecting conservation change at community level -case studies from Africa and Asia Ed Bentham AWF Founding Trustee
17.15- 18.00	Chinas Green Economic Efficiency Energy, Conservation and Emission Reduction. Dr Cheliang Zhu Professor Hongzhi Yue, NW University and Xuancheng University of Liverpool.with Miriam Kennet to co present	Interpreting the adaptation challenge when formulating a new development strategy China's strategic shift towards a low carbon economy and its structural impediments Christian Ploberger, (UK)
18.30	Walk over to Friends Meeting House

19.00-23.00

Thursday Night Gala dinner at Friends Meeting House

Speeches with gowns presentations and

Quiz:

Green +Economics +Biodiversity loss, Global Environmental Change, BRICS, CIVETS, revolution, climate change, poverty: How much do we know about what's happening?

Katherine Kennet caters with team

New Operetta

"Globalisation faces. Heartlessness of the contemporary world economics"

A Singing lecture with Professor Leszek Wozniak.

Friday 20th July 2012 9.00- 23.00
Mansfield College, University of Oxford

Themes :Climate Change and carbon economics. Europe. Funding
9.00	Registration	Katherine Kennet and Kristina Jociute		workshops	workshops
				Economics and efficiency and philosophy Stream	Europe Stream
10.30-12.00			College bar open in the foyer Teas coffees and snacks
9.00-9.45			Presentation	Industrial energy efficiency and sustainable development Dr oec. Sandra Gusta	Dr Arturo Herman The Sixth Environment Action Programme of the European Community: A Challenge for a Sustainable Society Dr Arturo Herman Rome ISTAT
9.45-10.30			Presentations	Greening the Rhetoric of Economics: Environmental Advocacy, The Informal Economy and Mediation W.Thomas Duncanson Phd. Millikin University	Dr Stephen Adewale Bakare, (Nigeria), The Macroeconomics Impacts of Oil Price Shocks, Empirical Evidence from Nigeria
10.30-11.15			Presentations	Workshops Dr Rosamund Stock London School of Economics The nature of the individual	ENGOs EU Acession and Empowerment – Case Studies from Malta Michael Briguglio and Dr Maria Brown
11.15-12.00			Presentations	Workshops Energy	Green Economics: New

				Efficiency, the Rebound and the Steady State Econon*y *Dr Horace Hering Open University Design Group Uk	EU member countries towards sustainable waste management, involvement of individuals Natalija Cudecka-Purina Latvia
12.00-13.00			Plenary Economics Mechanisms for Reform Exploring Strategic Choices in Action	Plenary Prizes and certificates and keynote speech Plenary driving forces in the world today: Oil, energy, economics, banking Mapping Instability defining mechanisms that make the economy unstable and driving forces behind economic growth Arne Thodok Eriksen Norway Turkeys Renewable Energy Policies A short look at the incentive mechanisms Dr Haal Ayca Simsek and Dr Dr Nevkat Simsek Dokuz Eylul University, Turkey and Oxford University Dr Stephen Adewale Bakare, (Nigeria), The Macroeconomics Impacts of Oil Price Shocks, Empirical Evidence from Nigeria The Sixth Environment Action Programme of the European Community: A Challenge for a Sustainable Society Dr Arturo Herman Rome ISTAT Via Skype Economics today Hazel Henderson
13.00-14.00	Lunch on a cash basis Oxford University Club
14.00-14.10	Photo on the quad
14.10-14.30	Book launches Green Economics:Voices of Africa Green Economics and Climate Change
14.30-15.15		Presentations		Workshops Efficiency of	Plenary: Nuclear Impacts and

					Energy Policy Green Growth in the Ukraine:Strategic Plans. Dr Viacheslav Potapenko National Institute for Strategic Studies
15.15-16.00		Presentations		Sustainable Development in Polish Regulated Market Marcin Bartkowiak and Bogna Janik Poznan School of Bankin	Ryota Roike (Japan) The view from Japan after Fuyushima and falling from the second largest economy to the third. Nuclear, and energy economics and the desperate need for renewables
16.15-17.00		Presentations		Workshops Green Economics for Life The Citizens Income Clive Lord and his new book	Workshops Turkeys Renewable Energy Policies A short look at the incentive mechanisms (in more detail) Dr Haal Ayca Simsek and Dr Nevkat Simsek Dokuz Eylul University, Turkey and Oxford University
17.00-18.30	Plenary Energy Renewables, and Policy (dangers and issues of nuclear) Oliver Tickell Author of Kyoto 2 The issues with latest nuclear developments Dr David Toke Specialist in Wind Dr Stephen Adewale Bakare, (Nigeria The Macroeconomics Impacts of Oil Price Shocks, Empirical Evidence from Nigeria

	Ryoto Roike After Fukiushima Japan Dr Haal Ayca Simsek and Dr Nevkat Simsek Dokuz Eylul Dr Viacheslav Potapenko Ukraine
16.30-18.30	College bar open College bar open in foyer
17.00-18.00	Croquet on the quad
19.00	Walk over to the Vaults
19.00-23.00	Dinner in the Vaults

Dinner in the Vaults and Gardens Restaurant

Speeches and prize giving
After dinner speeches

David Taylor
Earth Spirit -Awarded the Best Environmental Centre in the Uk
A life time as a green entrepreneur

Clive Lord
A lifetime as a Green Campaigner
Launch of his new book
Green Economics and Citizens Income

(Ticketed entrance £10.00 - please purchase tickets from Krisitina Jocuite before hand)

Saturday 21st July 2012
Mansfield College, University of Oxford

MAIN THEME: REFORM OF ECONOMICS

Also : writing with the Green Economics Institute, publications, books, journal, Economics reform and methodology, markets, capitalism, progressive economics discourses. Ecology, economy, the economics for the 21st and 22nd centuries, inter and intra generational equity, tools, instruments and plans for green economics and the economy. nclusion, green knowledge economy, strategies, markets, life style changes, eco tech and regulation.
Education for a green economy.
Green Economics and where next after RIO +20 ?
The UK economy and research, up- dating the 10 key points of green economics. Energy.
Taming the banks
Corporations: friend or foe, saviour or demon: exploring current narratives. Textiles and fashion in green economics. Preventing sweat shops. Pensions older people.
Philosophy and methodology of Green Economics, The Rise of the BRICS and CIVETS

	Junior Common Room	Council Chamber
9.00	Registration Katherine Kennet, Paul Kennet and Kristina Jociute
9.15- 10.00	Green Money and How to get it Sean Turnbull Australia	Negative externalities in the environment: internalisation of environmental external costs Piotr Szymanski Poland
10.00- 11.30	Bar open Mansfield Foyer for Teas, coffees and snacks
10.00- 10.45	How theoretical economics and the practise of financial markets have unsustainability built into them Stephen Mandel University of Birmingham UK	The WTO Friend or Foe in the process of regreening? Law. Helene Albrecht Uk and Germany
10.45- 11.30	Norway: Norway: A case study of hope: developing a post oil economy? Miriam Kennet Hans Kare Flo Tekna Norway (via skype) Mapping Instability defining mechanisms that make the economy unstable and driving forces behind economic growth Arne Thodok Eriksen Norway	Non Money work on the basis of sustainable and Prosperous economics Henry Cox
11.30- 12.15	Presentation Would Keynes have been a Green Economist ?	Using dual currencies to Highlight Co2 Emissions

	Dr Michael and Ruth Coleman- Taylor	Don O Neal
12.15-13.00	Plenary Certificates Professor Jack Reardon Education and innovation in 2012 Launching our Book Green Economics and Young People, employment, green jobs and education with the team of young people Edita, Kristina from Lithuania, Ryota Roike(Japan) Juliane Goeke (Germany)Lizz Vine and Hannah Hooper (UK) Adam Saleh and Braldey Forder(UK)
13.00-14.00	Lunch in the pub on a cash basis Bar open throughout lunch time
14.00-14.10	Photo on the quad
Themes for the afternoon: Reform of Economics around the World Differing Strategies and perspectives Implementation of Economics Reform
14.10-14.30	Green Economics Institute Book Launches Launch of Clive Lords New book Green Economics and the Citizens Income Book signing
14.30-15.15	Presentations A Green Economy versus a Bioeconomy reinforcement or separation? Anca Elena Gheorghica:A I Cuza University, (Romania)	Gerard Mondello (France) The Impact of liability rules as environmental regulation instruments. Polluting activities and lender's liability and law
15.15-16.00	Presentation Being a green entrepreneur Green Jobs and Green Careers, with Albert Oung (via skype) successful green entrepreneur and green campaigner from Hong Kong	Dr Marian Wozniak (Poland) The impact of world economics on the global levels of poverty and deprivation.
16.00-18.30	Bar Bar open serving tea and scones on a cash basis
16.00-16.45	Plenary Reform of Economics : Causes and Solutions Chaired by Miriam Kennet and Kristina Jociute Equality and opportunity and the current financial crisis Presentations and discussion A Green Economy versus a Bioeconomy reinforcement or separation? Economics and the Economy in Romania Anca Elena Gheorghica:A I Cuza University, (Romania)

<table>
<tr><td></td><td colspan="3">Dr Marian Wozniak (Poland)
The impact of world economics on the global levels of poverty and deprivation.

Gerard Mondello
(France)
The Impact of liability rules as environmental regulation instruments. Polluting activities and lender's liability and law</td></tr>
<tr><td>1700
-17.45</td><td colspan="2">Presentations
Abundance Score: A Proposal for Mapping our Common Wealth
Professor Wolfgang Hoeschele Truman Sate University. USA</td><td>Peter McManners.
Susta and Reading University. A new Convention on Civil Aviation.The need for More taxation on aviation fuel.</td></tr>
<tr><td>17.45
18.00</td><td colspan="3">Miriam Kennet
Green Economics in 2013 and 2053
Planning for the next steps

Publishing with the Green Economics institute and education with the Green Economics Institute</td></tr>
<tr><td>18.00</td><td colspan="3">Walk over to Friends Meeting House
English country 18th century walled Rose garden</td></tr>
<tr><td>18.30-
23.00</td><td>Party and networking</td><td>Typical English Summer buffet garden dinner</td><td rowspan="2">Speeches:
Miriam Kennet, Michelle Gale De Oliveira and Clive Lord
Report back from RIO +20: The world after RIO:+20
Green Economics Next Steps and Planning for the forthcoming year
Invitations to write and publish with The Green Economics Institute</td></tr>
<tr><td></td><td></td><td></td></tr>
</table>

Sunday 22nd July 2012
Sunday 22nd July 11.00-2.00 pm	Walking tour of Oxford and writing workshop	Meet Mansfield College Porters Lodge 10.30	Must be pre- booked for the tour and will include lunch in the Vaults and Gardens Restaurant on a cash basis Writing workshop in the afternoon for would be and experienced authors to discuss ideas for The Green Economics Institute to publish
	Monday and Tuesday 23rd and 24th July 2012 Retreat and Relax at Earth Spirit our education centre on a farm in Somerset Must be pre-booked please request details

The Mansfield College, Oxford University Bar will be open at the following times

09.00 – 11.00 and 4.00 – 6.30 – Thursday 19th July 2012

10.30 – 12.00 and 4.00 – 6.30 – Friday 20th July 2012

10.30 – 14.00 – Saturday 21st July 2012

All enquiries
greeneconomicsevents@yahoo.co.uk
greeneconomicsinstitute@yahoo.com
www.greeneconomics.org.uk