

In association with Zed Books, Gower Management Books, Ashgate Academic Publishers, Routledge Books, Inderscience Publishers of academic journals and CIPS Chartered Institute of Purchasing and Supply and The International Journal of Green Economics and Purchasing and Supply Management Ltd., Campinas University Brazil, and Green Economics Institute Nigeria, Green Economics Institute Norway.

Timetable for Green Economics Institute Conference
31 July - 1 August 2009
Mansfield College University of Oxford

Green Economics and Sustainable Development Economics
The clash between economy and ecology

Thursday 30 July 2009 Friends Meeting House, Oxford.
43 St Giles, OX1 3LW. It has a red door and is a few houses away from the Eagle & Child pub and opposite the Lamb & Flag pub near the Ashmolean Museum. We are about ten minutes' walk from Oxford railway station, and reachable by bus.

Evening 18:00-23:00	Welcome Party and introduction to conference- in the relaxing grounds of the lovely garden of the Oxford Friends Meeting House Buffet Supper Speeches The value of an internship with the Green Economics Institute: Welcome Miriam Kennet Volker Heinmann Interns presentations: Sophie Henstridge- Director Interns College, Being an intern one year on and welcome. David Nicholsby The future from an economist just starting his career UK and Cyprus Elliot Mbiko "The Millennium Dilemma: Sustainable Development not the Equilibrium..... " South Africa and UK and Green Economics Institute Mahelet Mekonen Ethiopia Development aspects and dilemmas Miriam Prasse The future and how to change it – seen from a young person in Germany Niamh Beirne Ireland Evolution of societies Save the environment movement Our work in Bangladesh Towkifur Rahman Bangladesh Charles Yui Li, UK and Hong Kong Green Accounting and power aspects of international trade with China Adrian Nell Green Economics Dilemmas in Zimbabwe Gaile Waters Environmental Law: Caribbean
--------------------------------	--

	Practical aspects of how the world works:19.20—19.30 David Weinberg UK and New Zealand How the world works- question and answer session discussion Break – drinks and registration 19.30 - 20.-00 20.00 - 20.30 Alison Smith "It's not just about the polar bears. Climate change policy as if everything else matters". Sophie Henstridge:The importance of physical geography in green economics 20.30 Dinner After dinner: Sophie Christopher Bowes Changing our way of doing things Dr Jeff Turk – Green Economics Institute Management Committee The importance of publishing for a career and how to do it successfully Registrations by Judith Felton asisted by Rachel Hembury and Miriam Prasse
--	---

--	--	--	--

Friday 31 July 2009 Mansfield College, Oxford University, Mansfield Road, Oxford (near to the Pitt Rivers Museum)

	Main Hall JCR	Council Chamber
9.45. – 11.00 Mansfield College, Foyer Tea Coffee  Registration	Registration for main conference Hosted by Judith Felton assisted by Rachel Hembury and Miriam Prasse
10.45 -11.00	Main Conference Opening addresses The clash between ecology and economy Miriam Kennet Welcome to the Age of Green Economics What is has achieved in 2009 Introducing conference hosts: Sophie Christopher -Bowes Sophie Henstridge hosts for the conference

11.00 -12.15	Keynote speeches: Advise for green economics in helping to solve poverty, inequality, soil erosion, climate change and species extinction The role of IT in Green Economics Rakesh Kumar VP Gartner Research Oliver Rothschild Head of UNICEF Poverty and inequality Dr Enrico Tezza International Labour Organisation Poverty and inequality Professor Djana Bejko Regional Environmental Centre and Luij University Gurakuqi Biology Department Faculty of Natural Sciences Shkoder Albania: Current development issues and conflicts with biodiversity and development choices. Development and species extinction: issues at Skadar Lake Albania and Montenegro Professor Graciela Chichilnisky UNESCO Professor of Economics. Columbia University USA IPCC Author. Kyoto Carbon Markets. Equity and climate change (via webcam being confirmed)
12.30 – 13.00	Special Keynote lecture: Dr John Boardman Environmental Change Institute Oxford University Founder of the Environmental Change and Management Programme The importance of soil erosion for meeting green objectives	Venture not vulture climate prosperity through having an innovaton ice age Steve Podmore Developing models for long-term infrastructure bonds

		for bundles of renewable energy and energy efficiency projects for Pension funds Jasper Sky Environmental Change Institute
13.00	Interns awards presentation
13.00-14.00	Summer lunch or sandwiches at the Oxford University Club overlooking the cricket green (depending on conference package )  or Sit down formal lunch in Mansfield College Dinning Room ( if prepaid)
	JCR	Council Chamber
14.00-15.15  Green and slow transport Health and social policy Panel debates	Panel Debate Challenge:  The clash between Ecology and Economy  Slow travel in practise: Chair Miriam Kennet  Michael Birtles Managing Director E rail The importance of train travel to Europe  Mark Smith - The man on seat 61 “Maybe your next flight should be on a train”  Green transport Steven Plowden: NOT SO FAST! Why lower traffic speeds are crucial and how to achieve them.  Chair:TBC	Stephen Mandel Cost and Benefit Analysis in Green Economics  Martin Bowes Ethical Performance Management
15.15-16.00	Special Lecture: Dr Mayer Hillman Policy Studies Institute Jogging us out of the comfort	Green economics: a new approach to solar in the UK: can we make the shift

	zone Challenging the core of our assumptions Climate change: what can we realistically do to prevent disaster:	from returns to risk Sarah Skinner Dr Jane Skinner South Africa Equilibrium economics – but which equilibrium?
15.45 – 16.15 Foyer Mansfield College	Tea coffee and juices
16.00 - 17.00	Eco innovation and Green IT Green Innovation and business and implementation Part 1 Keynotes: Green IT Rakesh Kumar VP Gartner Research Greening of business – Focus on Norway and Sweden to “Producing value through a knowledge based society. Has insufficient investment investment in knowledge in the west contributed to both the financial crisis and the environmental crisis?” Hans Kåre Flø Tekna Oslo Norway Douglas Watson University of Nottingham Innovation The role of Satellite in Environmental Monitoring	The economics of swine flu Mexican impact on health the economics of swine flu Ewa Kos Poland Aleksandra Lukaszewicz Poland Flu and politics
17.00 - 18.00	Eco innovation part 2 continued from previous hour Profiling the eco innovators Pelin Demirel Effie Kesidou Nottingham University	Energy in a Green Economy Ben Armstrong-Haworth Cass Business School, City University, London, UK

	Technological innovation and emission an empirical investigation  Soumyananda Dinda Bihar Institute of Management	Oliver Tickell Kyoto2 Solving Climate Change Copenhagen 2009
19.00 - 23.00	Bar open in the Oxford University Club, Mansfield Road all evening
20.00 - 23.00	Lovely evening communal informal meal for all the conference, amongst lush tropical greenery at the Thai Orchid 58a St Clements Street, Oxford, OX4 1AH Please pay directly for what you choose
22.30 - 23.00	Return to bar in Oxford University Club, Mansfield Road
Saturday 1 August 2009 Mansfield College Oxford University (near to the Pitt Rivers Museum)
Foyer	JCR	Council Chamber	Old Bar workshops
	Registration Conference Team: Paul Kennet Hilary Driver Host: Sophie Christopher Bowes Catering Team: Miriam Prasse Volker Heineman  Miriam Kennet  Introducing conference hosts: Sophie Christopher -Bowes Sophie Henstridge hosts for the conference
9.00 -10.30 Panel debates and presentations	Forestry and REDDs  Forest Accounts A primary case study in China Professor Zhang Ying Beijing (Keynote speech)  Forestry - Reducing the effect of deforestation and forest degradation – carbon	Green Economics: as if younger and other and each generation (s) matter  Professor Priscilla Alderson Institute of Education, Green Economics Institute	Economics Reform and Methodology Stream:  Professor Jack Reardon Hamline University USA Economics The changing

	sequestration effects Nigel Miles Sandra Hernandez The case of the World Bank Facility and the REDD in Mexico Environmental Change Institute Oxford University Douglas Watson Nottingham University Innovation and the role UAV and Satellite Earth Observation for REDDs	Advisory Board and University of London Samir Jhutani Oxford University and government fast track economics The economics of climate change and discussions about the methodology of discounting the future and intergenerational equity Climate change and the social discount rate Dr Craig Duckworth UK	structure of the renewables industry Rosamund Stock LSE The clash between ecology and economics a difference in psychology – and how we can sort it out and make economics accessible in the process Elliot Mbiko South Africa Equilibrium economics?
10.30 - 10.45	Tea and coffee and juices Oxford University Club
10.30 - 12.00	Womens unequal pay and poverty Therese Jefferson and Anusha Mahendran Australia Miriam Kennet Editor Womens Unequal Pay and Poverty Book Gower Publishers Women in large corporations Helen Clegg A T Kearney The Green Economics Institute Knowledge Management Director Sue England Ageing populations, pensions and women's work: Assumptions, fallacies and the conventional wisdom Mahelet Mekonnen	Local Greenlinks - case study in Herefordshire of a Green Business Elaine Brook Director Gaia Partnership Niamh Beirne Ireland Evolution in Societies Sophie Christopher Bowes (session chair) Eco innovation Relaxing our relationships with money	Methodology Narrative methodology A basis for the narrative grounding in economics Dr Jeff Turk PHD Brussels and Slovenia Arturo Hermann Green Economics "The Institutional Analysis of the Market and Its Links with Green Economics". Italy Dr Joseph Halevi Australia Current crisis The economic situation and tentatively prospects

12.00- 13.00	Lunch at Oxford University Club overlooking the cricket green Catering Team: Volker Heinemann and Miriam Prasse Book Project launches: Ian Chambers Aus and UK Wolfgang Heerschele Germany UK and Bengal Chidi Onahue Nigeria Professor Jack Reardon USA Mahalet Mekonen Ethiopia Charles Yui Li UK and Hong Kong Mark Smith UK Man on seat 61 Peter McManners UK Dr Jeff Turk
13.00 – 14.15	Green Economics in Africa Reforming Macro economics Njoku D Fedma Fidelia Nigeria Green Economics In Ethiopia The Gilbe Dam and its impact on the development of subsaharan Africa Mahelet Mekonnen Green Economics Institute Ethiopia (with assistance speaking) Adrian Nel Green Economics Institute Zimbabwe Heterodox economics, green economics and development discourses Clothing awareness and environmental consciousness- the exemplar of south east Nigeria Pius Azaka Ntagu Nigeria Nane Grimot South Bank University and Nigeria Corruption in regimes in Africa (being confirmed) Chair TBC	Geo engineering and geography Geo thermals or life style changes? Permeable pavements and geothermal heat pumps addressing urban run off reuse and renewable energy Kiran Tota- Maharaj and Miklas Scholz Measuring abundance: the case of cittaslows attempts to support better quality of life Professor Wolfgang Hoeschele USA Germany and Bengal	Rachel Curzon Green Economics Institute Editorial Board Birmingham City University Stakeholder theory and green economics 'Perceptions of stakeholder engagement - just what is it really?' Professor Gustavo Vargas University of Mexico Green Economics Institute Editorial Board "The Theory of the Transnational Firm: the coordination process and the structural change"

14.15 -15.15	Green Procurement and green supply David Rabey Director Procurement DEFRA (being confirmed) Njoku D Fedma Fidelia Nigeria Green Procurement : a Nigerian perspective "Fear, Uncertainty and Doubt Strategies: An Exploratory Analysis Applied to Environmental Product Differentiation" Chahira Noura Green Economics Institute Tunisia	Green issues and environmental policy in Algeria Dr Fenni Mohamed Algeria Climate Change and Sustainable Development in Nigeria;The mitigating greener approach of Green Wall Sahara Nigeria Programme Dr Chidi Magnus Onuoha &amp; Dr Nicholas Ozor The Green Economics Institute Abuja Nigeria	Practical changes: Henry Cox UK The design of sustainable economies and Economics to suit them Adapt and thrive the sustainable revolution Peter McManners Henley Management School Save the environment movement Our work in Bangladesh Towkifur Rahman Bangladesh (being confirmed)
14.45 -15.00	Tea Oxford University Club Catering team: Volker Heinemann and Miriam Prasse David Nicholsby Mahelet Mahonen
15.15 – 16.30 Panels	Green Accounting: Chair; Charles Li Chung Green Economics Institute Intern UK Hong Kong The value of Green Accounting Forest Accounts A Primary case study in China abstract Professor Zhang Ying Beijing China Tony Greenham "Green Accounting: A Conceptual Framework"	Analysis of the market and its limits Markets and climate change economics Simon Wolf Reducing problems through reduced complexity? Considering the benefits and limits of economics perspectives on climate change Green Markets in Germany Fabian Teichmuller Dr Enrico Tezza International Labour	Regulation and Management Systems Dr Jean Boulton Cranfield School of Management Complexity Theory and Considerations of Policy Development and Regulation Gaile Waters Environmental Law and its importance as a tool Robert Kudlak Poland Do environmental management systems lead to better

		Organisation University Turin Crisis of free market and sustainability revival Bradley Parrish 'Acting within the Market Economy without the Market Ideology' Chair : TBA	economic performance? An empirical analysis of cost reductions in enterprises in Poland
15.45 -16.15	Tea Oxford University Club Catering team: Volker Heinemann and Miriam Prasse David Nicholsby Mahelet Mahonen
16.30 - 17.15	Keynote speeches: Dr Susan Canney Oxford University Valuing biodiversity: the systemic view and implications for green economics Chair: Sophie Christopher Bowes Green Business Practise	Progress in the Greening of Poland A threat of privatisation of medical care and education in Poland due to a loan from the World Bank? Head Deputy of "Z Naszej Strony" Foundation from Poland Ewa Kos Poland	Agrarian livestock and organic agriculture in Spain Sandra Rios Núñez. and and Daniel Coq Spain Organic and biodiversity in agriculture Kakha Nadiraze from Georgia

17.15-18.30	Focus on the Balkans Part 1 Professor Djana Bejko Keynote speaker : Regional Environmental Centre and Lujj University Gurakuqi Biology Department Faculty of Natural Sciences Shkoder Albania talks about the Skadar Lake Development v Biodiversity Ecology or economy Stakeholders Concern by Management of Shared Freshwater Resources	Women and employment prospects in India Mick Taylor UK	Doctoral Workshop Panel: Dr Jeff Turk, Dr Susan Canney, Professor Priscilla Alderson, Professor Jack Reardon Niamh Beirne Ireland Structural dynamics and framework for an Economic System for international societies
	Focus on the Balkans Part 2 Daniela Kostadinova, GTZ Serbia Besmir Geziqi Albanian Greens "Biodiversity and Ecotourism possibilities in Albania" Miriam Kennet Development issues in the Montenegro economy: a litmus of current economics methodology and assumptions	Ian Chambers Programme Director Orange: UK and Australia Launching a PlanforthePlanet A business plan for a sustainable world	Peter Burt A replacement for Trident – Can we afford it
18.30 - 19.00		Miriam Kennet Green Economics Taxonomy What has been achieved: The development of Green Economics in 2009 Publishing with the green economics institute Dr Jeff Turk Editorial Board Slovenia and Brussels

Evening sit down conference dinner 19.30 for 20.00	Formal sit down celebratory dinner          Speeches and 3 course dinner at : Vaults and Gardens Coffee Shop and Restaurant built in 1320- the oldest university administrative building Hosted and introduced by Sophie Christopher Bowes Speeches:          Gaile Waters          Environmental Law in the Caribbean Melissa Rohde          Environmental change Institute          Oxford University          Lessons from India          Sustainable Solutions to the water crisis Dr Susan Canney          After dinner speech:          "Elephants, wild dogs and green economics:          Understanding the bigger picture	Directions:          Just off the High Street entrance from the south side of Radcliffe Square, near Brasenose College          (in the University Church of St Mary the Virgin – entrance round the back)
Bar open till late 19.30-23.00	Oxford University Club          Bar open
Sunday 2 August 2009 Vaults and Gardens Restaurant-between High Street and entrance from the south side of Radcliffe Square, Oxford, Oxfordshire OX1 4AH (this event must be pre booked)
	Late Sunday summer lunch
14.00 – 17.00	Working groups
	Planning the next steps:
	Working groups          women, poverty, climate change          greening of business          and green innovation          and other working groups
	Publishing          and working together

Participation at the conference is by emailing greenecomicsinstitute@yahoo.com and filling in a booking form.

Booking form and more information on our website www.greenecomics.org.uk
07990 590463

If you need more information or help with registration please email us at the above email address.

In order for us to cater for your requirements its important to register as soon as possible.

Every paid up conference participant on arrival will receive conference proceedings, which contain excellent quality articles and which are published and lodged with the British Library and further copies can be ordered from the Green Economics Institute.