Why Should I Join the Green Economics Institute?

1. Membership with the Green Economics Institute means greater recognition and publicity with one of the world's largest and fastest-growing green networks.
2. Membership allows your organisation to be involved in the development of the new discipline – a reserved seat in the front row of academic discovery.
3. Membership in the Green Economics Institute gives you preferred access to vital professional development opportunities such as national conferences, international trainings, and workshops. Stay up-to-date with top intellectuals and innovators.
4. Membership gives you access to resources, including exclusive instructional materials and publication opportunities for your organisation and staff.
5. Membership also gives you access to cutting-edge research about current issues, from greening the economy to green energy, business and technologies.
6. Membership opens opportunities for your employees and students to take part in our world-renowned, highly-competitive interns programme, keeping your entire organisation ahead-of-the-curve.
7. Membership in the Green Economics Institute makes you part of an international network of over 10,000 educators, researchers, and professionals world-wide.

...And the advantages don't end here!!

Institutional Membership

Institutional Membership is open to any organization interested in increasing its visibility in the rapidly emerging green market. Institutional membership reflects participation by an organization (such as a university department or company) rather than by an individual. All university and college departments who are current institutional members of the Green Economics Institute are invited to be listed as Sponsoring Schools. The opportunities are truly endless.

Institutional Membership Benefits

- Listing for university and college departments on the Green Economics Institute "Sponsoring Schools" page with link to your organisations website. (Our website (www.greeneconomics.org.uk) receives about 10,000 hits monthly.)
  - Download and submission access to the Green Economics Institute web repository of teaching and learning materials
  - Special training programmes at discounted rates for your organisation.
  - Access to institutional members-only discounts for conferences and events.
  - Quarterly e-mail report on issues relating to exemplary institutional outreach programs
  - Invitation to apply for bids with the Green Economics Institute
  - Free copy of "The Green Intern" for your Internships office, as well as advertising your organisation to the hundreds of excellent applicants we receive annually.
  - Regular updates and invitations to upcoming conferences.
  - Special rates for students and staff.
  - Opportunities to announce your events on the Green Economics Institute website
  - Opportunity to publish in the International Journal of Green Economics (www.inderscience.com/ijge)
  - Institutional members are offered three places to exceptional internship applicants. The Green Economics Institute Internship programme has been called the "Rolls Royce of Internships" and is highly competitive.
  - Dues for institutional members are £2000 for the first year. If you have any questions, please contact the Green Economics Institute: greeneconomicsinstitute@yahoo.com
- Membership Dues: Institutional members receive three complimentary individual memberships: one is the institutional contact, and the other two are individual affiliate memberships. These three memberships include special publications and regular membership benefits without paying dues (normally £40.00 per person per year). Individual members receive special invitations to Green Economics members events, and the opportunity to take part in special events, such as our special members-only Glastonbury Retreat and invitations to contribute to Green Economics Institute literature – books, academic journals, and policy magazines. Institutional members also receive the biannual Green Economist Members Newsletter and gain access to incredible networking options.
- Interested in purchasing your institutional membership in bulk? We offer a convenient one, two or three year option.
