

Publications of the Institute

The Institute has a number of publications to order by emailing info@greeneconomicsinstitute.eu

1. The Green Economist the magazine of the Green Economics Institute

By subscription of £10 a year (3-4 issues).

Distributed free to members of the Institute - please see the tab on the front of this web site for membership forms or email the Institute on the address stated above.

ISSN 1751-0562

GREEN ECONOMIST

The Journal of the Green Economics Institute

Printed and published by The Green Economics Institute
www.greeneconomics.org.uk

Editor:
Miriam Kennet

Editorial Board:

Volker Heinemann, Brian Heatley, Rose Bridger, Jacob Sanders, Jonathan Dixon, Derek Wall.

2. The International Journal of Green Economics academic double blind peer reviewed journal published by academic publishers Inderscience. The first issue is available on their website www.inderscience.com/ijge

3. Conference proceedings from our popular conferences are available including

Green Economics 2005 conferences proceedings

Oxford Conference April 2006 proceedings

Glastonbury February 2006 Conference Proceedings

Feminism and Green Economics Conference Proceedings

Carbon Economy Conference Proceedings. Please email for details.

4. Books

The Institute is running several series of Green Economics Books with several publishers. The first book is Dr Derek Wall's Babylon and Beyond, published by Pluto Press dealing with a philosophical analysis of protest movements. There are 20 other books in development of all kinds including text books on Green Economics, an update of Miriam Kennet and Molly Scott Cato's edited volume of Green Economics Beyond Supply and Demand to Meeting People's Needs, and books on subjects ranging from economic theory, critique of neo classical theory to food issues, sustainability, energy issues and economic philosophy.

Miriam Kennet